

1. Descriptive Sentences (Including expanded noun phrases) The rising waves crashed noisily onto the shore. The quiet boy nervously walked home. The vicious dog snapped angrily at Jack. 	2. Subordinating Conjunction Sentences (Adding additional information to the main clause using a conjunction) It was late, however she wasn't tired. People like jogging because it helps them get fit. The dog lay in the sun, although it was hot. 	3. Coordinating Conjunction Sentences (Used to join together two clauses in a sentence. The clauses must make sense on their own.) It hurt yet he carried on. She liked swimming and she swam everyday.  	4. Exclamation Sentences (Start with how or what and contain a verb) What a clever fox he is! How lovely you are! How wonderful that is! 	5. Question Sentences (To ask something) Are you happy with the state of the local park? Have you ever been to the theatre? Would the life boat arrive in time?
6. List Sentences (Use commas or semi colons to separate information) Jack entered the classroom, pulled up his chair and began to write quickly. I really like beef, with mushroom sauce; pasta, with Alfredo sauce; and salad, with French dressing. 	7. Fronted Adverbial Sentences (Start your sentence with an adverb) Anxiously, Laura stared at the stony floor below. Wearily, the teacher stared at the noisy line of children. On Monday, I played in the local football tournament. 	8. Speech Mark Sentences / Inverted Commas (Inverted commas or speech marks go before and after direct speech, surrounding what was said) "Where are you going?" Alex whispered to his best friend Tom, as they hid behind the graveyard wall. 	9. Relative clauses in parentheses (Using brackets, dashes or commas) I spoke to the girl (who looked very guilty). The cat, which was black, sat and washed its paws. Toby ran to the building - where he had seen the missing dog - as fast as he could. 	10. Multi Clause / As Sentences (A sentence containing more than one clause. Each clause contains a subject and verb) As I scanned the desert island, the sound of wild animals filled my ears. James curled up into a ball, as his parents' raised voices were heard.
11. ing Sentences (Start your sentence with an ing word) Looking rather lost, she pulled a letter from her bag. Running along the lane, George became aware that he was being followed. 	12. ed Sentences (Start your sentence with an ed word) Disgusted at the bully's behaviour, the policeman gave him a warning. Amazed at the sight of the fair, the child jumped up and down in excitement. 	13. Prepositional Phrase Sentences (Start your sentence with a preposition that tells you where or when something is in relation to something else.) On the wall, hung a large mirror. Behind the door, stood the ancient, wooden grandfather clock. 	14. Simile Sentence (To liken a word to something else) The crisp white snow covered the ground like sparkling white diamonds. Like waves against the shore, the wind hit the wooden house. It was as slippery as an eel. 	15. Imperative Sentence (Commands with verbs) Feed your fish every morning and night. Place the lid on the tank. Check the water filter is working.
16. Proper Noun Sentence (Start your sentence with a proper noun) Whitby, a pretty coastal town, is a popular seaside resort. Sam, a tall, dark-haired boy, stood on the doorstep. 	17. Alliterative Sentences (When words start with the same sound) Together, the seven sisters slept soundly on the sand. Meowing quietly, the cautious, curious cat crept towards the puppy. 	18. Metaphor Sentences (A comparison in which one thing is said to be another ... not like) The giant's steps were thunder as he ran toward Jack. Stars are flowers in the meadow of the sky. 	19. Onomatopoeia Sentences (A word that imitates the sound that it represents) Thunder boomed and lightning flashed across the sky. Rain drops pitter-pattered against my window. 	20. Personification Sentences (To give human qualities to an object or animal) As the wind blew, leaves pranced and twirled in the air. The old car groaned as it made its way down the long, windy road. 